

School bids farewell to outgoing batch

A student (C) of Class XII being felicitated by (L-R) Sharmistha Julka, Rosemary Sagar, Gouramangi Singh and Dr Deepak Raj Singh Bisht

The Sagar School's Class of 2016 was bid farewell at a recent event attended by acclaimed footballer Gouramangi Singh. Chairperson Rosemary Sagar, director Sharmistha Julka, guest of honour Dr KJ Jose and officiating principal Dr Deepak Raj Singh Bisht lit the ceremonial lamp and started the ceremony which was attended by parents of the outgoing children.

Dr Bisht advised the students to draw upon the qualities of determination, perseverance, courage and dedication to face the world. Sharmistha Julka urged the students to tap into the power of possibility they radiate and harness their inner potential to flourish and shine in the world. Rosemary Sagar inspired the students by narrating her experiences of studying and working abroad.

Students of class XI expressed their love and sentiments through songs, dances and presentations. The chief guest and the school management felicitated the children with mementos and a personalized magazine Reminiscences@Sagar. Pradhuman Rao, Kanika Marwah and other students from the outgoing batch spoke on life and times at the school. The Dean of Pastoral Care, Lt Col Sharma gave the vote of thanks. The evening ended with energetic dancing to DJ music and a delicious spread for all.
