

Fun and fete at school's founder's day celebration

(L-R) Ashwin Julka, Sharmistha Julka and Rosemary Sagar

A performance at the Founder's Day celebration

Students of The Sagar School gathered for a day of fun and learning at their Founder's Day celebration recently. The cultural programmes with the theme – We Are The World – included musical concerts, plays, fusion dances and a doll show, delivering the message of unity and peace. Students also put up exhibitions in science, languages, social sciences, art, astronomy and nature and crafts club, and also had fun at the fete which had mouth-watering food stalls and games.

Chairperson Rosemary Sagar emphasised on the need to develop curiosity, independence and belief in a person. She also spoke about how the school, through its equilibrium between academics, sports and co-curricular activities, is committed to the students' growth. Sharmistha Julka, director of the school, spoke about how everyone has a unique talent and how education in the school is about exploration and discovery of self.

Chief guest Anmurag Batra, editor-in-chief of Businessworld magazine, commended the school and praised the founder, the late Dr Vidya Sagar, for creating an "oasis in a desert". He said to the students, "There are no failures, only experiences." He also gave away prizes to the CBSE toppers – Aarushi Sharma, Thoinu Karam, Khumlong Av-ennoho (Class XII), Archana Yehgkhom, Sushma Kshetriymayum, Parth Yadav (Class X); and toppers across classes – Akshaya Hawaibum, Riddhi Sharma, Karanpreet Singh, Vasu Mittal, Ayush Rungta, Khushboo Mittal, Archana Yehgkhom and Aryaman Gir. Ruby House bagged the house of excellence trophy, and the principal, Jayshree Balasaria, presented the annual report.