

Celebrating art & craft at this school festival

KEEPING RURAL HANDICRAFTS ALIVE: Students of the Sagar School make wind chimes using material available locally

Principal Deepak Bisht, Rishnit Singh Heera, Manmeet K Walia and Amarjyot Kaur at the school's annual festival

The annual art festival, Kalasagar, of the Sagar School was held from October 10 to 13 at the school premises in Tijara, Alwar district. The festival, which is aimed at promoting various art forms, had budding artpreneur Rishnit Singh Heera as the chief guest on the final day. Manmeet K Walia, whose art works revolve around women-centric themes and narratives, was the guest of honour at the event. The event was made special by a former student, film artist Sarthak Kakkar, who conducted a workshop on cinema. Also present was Amarjyot Kaur, who is a part of the school's social outreach programme.

Workshops in fine arts, music, dance, theatre and traditional handicrafts were conducted over the four days of the festival. Underprivileged children were given an opportunity to participate in various activities at the festival.
