- i. Take few iron nails, nails of copper, nails of aluminum and divide each type of metal nails in three groups. Name them group A, B and C. Keep the nails of group "A" dipped in water in a suitable container (i.e. dip iron nails in a container filled with water, similarly dip aluminum nails and copper nails in a separate container filled with water and marked them "A".) Then take equal number of nails of each metal and dip them in a container filled with oil (mustard oil or groundnut oil) and mark them "B". Lastly take the third set of metal nails and keep them on a cotton wet with water. Now keep "A" and "B" undisturbed for 5 days while on "C" sprinkle some water regularly so as to keep the cotton wet enough during this process. Observe and write the changes took place in all the three and find out the reasons behind those changes.
- ii. Take a pack of packed snacks and open that. Now divide the snacks in two groups namely group "A" and "B". Now keep the content of group "A" in back in the pack and tie it with the help of a rubber band and keep it undisturbed for 5 days while keep the content of group "B" in an open container for 5 days. After 5 days observe and write the changes taken place in the content of both the groups and find the reasons behind those changes.
- iii. In your family talk to elders about acidity felt by them and its symptoms and reasons. Also ask them the medicines which were used by them to get relief from the acidity. If they have used oral antacid like ENO, Gelusil, Digene etc. then try to find out the ingredients of these antacids and how do these ingredients help to decrease acidity? Pen down all the data collected.
