

PHOTOS: HTCS

Cooking their way into a fresh new world

The culmination of a quiz and Master Chef Show—Chefathon was recently organised at The Sagar School campus, in collaboration with Facility Manager, Sodexo Food Solutions India Private Limited. Celebrity Master Chef Ajay Chopra was the Judge and the Guest of Honour for the evening. The competition began with a test of the students' knowledge of food.

Four teams representing the four houses of the school — Ruby, Sapphire, Emerald and Diamond — fought it out in three rounds, at the end of which Emerald House emerged victorious.

The inter-house cooking competition was next, which saw the kids cheering as the contents of the goodie bag — cooking material that would help them turn the peeled veggies into a dish, was revealed. Participants were given eight minutes to prepare their dish, after which Chef Ajay tasted and marked the preparations on five parameters — taste, creativity, hygiene, teamwork and presentation. In this, Ruby House was the winner of this competition.

"It was more than just a competition. It was a test of knowledge, teamwork, and a realisation of what it takes to cook good food," says Deepak Raj Singh Bisht, officiating principal,

The Sagar School.

The Master Chef expressed delight at the knowledge and cooking skill of the students, but felt there was scope for teach the children much more about food. "I'd like to come back and promote more culinary skills here. There's a lot of knowledge to be channeled," said chef Chopra.

HTC

The little chefs with Chef Ajay Chopra and Deepak R S Bisht

