

School celebrates Founder's Day with zeal

Ashwin Julka with Sharmistha Julka, Rosemary Sagar, Jaimini Bhagwati, Rita Bhagwati and Dr Deepak Bisht

The Sagar School in Alwar recently celebrated its 17th Founder's Day and Jaimini Bhagwati, the former Indian high commissioner to the UK, was the chief guest at the event. He was accompanied by his wife, Rita Bhagwati.

He gave away trophies and certificates to students and advised them to read the biographies of great leaders to draw inspiration from their lives.

The chairperson of the school, Rosemary Sagar, announced the promotion of the officiating principal Dr Deepak Bisht to the position of the principal, praising his contributions since he joined two-and-a-half years back.

Director Sharmistha Julka also spoke about the importance of value education being imparted at the school including lessons in embracing adversity, non-discrimination and mutual respect. The annual report was presented by Bisht. He appreciated the contribution of his colleagues to educate, empower and establish a second home for the students.

The audience enjoyed the cultural programme Kalamanthan, which was a medley of songs, dances and plays. School students from 22 states and seven countries walked the ramp in their traditional costumes. The exhibition put up by the school's students, earned appreciation.
