The Sagar School organised a valedictory function for its Class 12 students on February 17. The chief guest, Padmashree Gauri Ishwaran, founder principal of Sanskriti School, spoke on the importance of tolerance and compassion as necessary precursors to success and urged students to follow moral values.

The director, Sharmistha Julka, encouraged the students to go about their lives pursuing their version of happiness, always doing their part to help others achieve their goals and to keep their chins up even in the face of challenges.

Dr Deepak Raj Singh Bisht, principal, wished the students good luck for their future.

The students, in the presence of their parents, were felicitated with badges, mementoes and Reminiscences@Sagar – a magazine.

The atmosphere was nostalgic as the head boy, Ko

Beomgyeong, and head girl Archana Yengkhom shared their experiences and how the school transformed their lives. Class 11 students presented a set of videos that captured memorable moments.

The vote of thanks was delivered by the dean of administration, YS Kanyal.
